La Manga del Mar Menor is a narrow strip of land located in the region of Murcia, in the southeast of Spain. It stretches for approximately 24 kilometers and separates the Mar Menor, a saltwater lagoon, from the Mediterranean Sea. La Manga del Mar Menor is a popular tourist destination known for its warm climate, beaches, and tourist facilities. The Mar Menor is a shallow coastal lagoon that is separated from the Mediterranean Sea by La Manga. The lagoon is renowned for its warm, shallow waters, making it ideal for water activities such as swimming, windsurfing, and sailing. The region is also famous for its therapeutic mud, believed to have healing properties and used in health and beauty treatments at various spas in the area. La Manga del Mar Menor offers a wide range of accommodations, restaurants, bars, and ente...
