This is a beautiful country villa situated close to the town of Redovan and within a 5 minute drive to the historic city of Orihuela. The property offers the buyer 3 large double bedrooms and an extra guest bedroom adjoined to the main building and is an impressive build size of 270 square metres. There is also a large private plot. As you enter the property you are greeted by a large lounge which has individual areas for relaxation and dining plus the added benefit of an extra lounge/ dining area - both lounge areas have log fires installed. The main lounge is designed beautifully with some superb features and decor. There are two family sized bathrooms; a large kitchen with breakfast bar and also a utility room. Leading off the master bedroom upstairs there is a large terrace offering panoramic mountain and countryside views plus the added bonus of a staircase accessed rooftop solarium offering superb views. Added features include the guest bedroom, a large workshop, security gates, private parking, outdoor kitchen, above ground pool and many external dining/ terrace areas on the plot and surrounding the property. There is room for a private pool on the plot. A must view for the ...
