164m²	109m²	3	2	✔

Santiago de la Ribera, located on the Murcian coast, is a privileged setting for purchasing a new home, thanks to its combination of natural beauty, access to services and quality of life. Located next to the Mar Menor, this picturesque destination offers a calm and relaxing atmosphere, ideal for those looking to live near the sea, but with proximity to cities such as Murcia and Cartagena. The area stands out for its excellent infrastructure, wide beaches, and a pleasant Mediterranean climate throughout the year. In addition, it has a growing offer of shops, restaurants and recreational activities, making Santiago de la Ribera an attractive place for both permanent residents and those looking for a second home. The promotion of new construction in this area offers the possibility of enjoying an enviable lifestyle, with the advantage of a modern and well-connected environment.
