Beautiful country house in an exclusive location that guarantees privacy and tranquility. With its traditional Spanish architecture and rustic details, this 425m² country house, located on a 3100m² plot, radiates charm and warmth. The living room is surrounded by large windows on three sides, creating a feeling of connection with nature. The property has a completely ground floor independent apartment with its own facilities. On the upper floor, on the left side of the stairs, there are three (family) guest rooms with their own shower and toilet, and on the ground floor there is a cozy kitchen/bar with breakfast room. The spacious rooms are basically furnished and offer plenty of space and comfort for guests. The private room features a fully equipped kitchen and is ideal for culinary enthusiasts, and the living room with electric fireplace invites cozy gatherings and relaxation and there is a large conservatory with breathtaking views over the mountains and the castle of Alicante city. The country house has extensive grounds with numerous opportunities for outdoor activities, such as planting a vegetable garden or creating recreational areas. The wide ...
