Quietly tucked away in the foothills behind Crevillente this detached country property is perfectly situated for those looking for an authentic Spanish country experience. Delightfully set-out the house comprises 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, an independent kitchen with separate utility room, spacious lounge/dining area and large landing to the first-floor. To the front of the house there is a large porch area, ideal for entertaining or simply relaxing overlooking the well maintained garden area, adorned with a variety of trees and recreational areas. The kitchen leads out also to a covered summer kitchen with ample room again for entertaining or relaxing. To the first floor there are two sun terraces, one enjoying views over the garden the other to the mountains behind. Not forgetting the 10 X 5 metre pool, nicely positioned for total privacy. This beautiful house and plot are a wonderful example of how to get the best of either permanent living here in Spain, or superior holiday accommodation. Viewing highly recommended for this villa at this price!
