The house consists of a large covered terrace which is south facing with amazing views of the Vega Baja, the front door leads into the living room with a hallway that gives you access to the 3 bedrooms downstairs along with kitchen and bathroom. There is a stairway in one of the bedrooms leading up to a fourth bedroom that has a private terrace. Outside there are 2 access gates, one manual and one automatic. There is an outside BBQ area, the pool (8X4) area also has an outside bathroom and storage room. Apart from a carport there is also a closed garage, and completely separate building of around 70m² that could easily be converted to guest accommodation or whatever the buyer desires. Fabulous location 30 minutes coast and airport must be seen superb quality and extras no expense spared in the finish and materials...
