Looking for that perfect detached villa with a private swimming pool, then look no further than this wonderful three-story villa in Lake View Mansions. Built in 2003 and facing south. Consisting of 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. Benefiting from a large private swimming pool with off road parking and storage area. This property also has its very own roof top solarium where you can enjoy the Spanish sun while overlooking the lakes, and countryside towards the sea. A brief description of the property: you enter the front terrace into the large living-dining room that leads to two double sized bedrooms with built in wardrobes to the left, while the opposite side leads to the independent kitchen being fully equipped and a bathroom. At the rear off from the living room, you have direct access to either the garden and under build or the roof solarium. The roof solarium offers great panoramic views of the Spanish countryside. As you enter the under build you have, two bedrooms and a separate bathroom, one bedroom with a private balcony, both with fitted wardrobes. At the far end there is a closed off entrance to another large bedroom with "en suite" bathroom with vi...
