This charming detached finca in Dolores, Costa Blanca South offers the perfect combination of countryside calm and modern convenience. Built in 2004 and owned by the same owner from new, it sits on a generous 3,050 m² plot with beautiful mountain and farmland views, enjoying a peaceful south-facing position just a five-minute drive from the town of Dolores. The main house features three double bedrooms, including one with an en-suite, as well as a modern family bathroom. An open-plan kitchen with a central island and brand-new, never-used appliances opens into the living area, where a cosy log fireplace adds warmth and character. At the front of the property, a large glassed-in balcony provides an inviting sun trap during the winter months, creating an additional bright and relaxing living space. Outside, the property benefits from a private pool and ample parking with electric gates, along with a garage located within the annex. The separate annex provides excellent versatility and includes a bedroom, a bathroom, a garage, and an additional room fitted with wardrobes that could be converted into a kitchen, making it ideal for guests, extended family or potential rental use.
