Some properties define an era. Others, because of their location, are simply impossible to replicate. Frontline at Marina Cabo Roig, where the Mediterranean takes centre stage, lies one of the properties with the greatest potential on the entire Costa Blanca. An extraordinary opportunity to complete a luxury villa in a setting where the availability of such properties is virtually non-existent. Set on a spectacular 1,501 m² plot, the property features a construction of over 600 m², offering the possibility of creating a fully customised villa in one of the most prestigious addresses on the Spanish coastline. Its true value lies not only in its impressive dimensions, but also in a location that is now almost impossible to find. Waking up every morning to uninterrupted sea views, enjoying a privileged outlook throughout the year, and living alongside Marina Cabo Roig is a privilege reserved for very few properties. The villa provides the perfect setting to create a landmark residence, where architecture, design and location come together to create a truly exceptional home. A project designed for those who are not looking for just another property, ...
