Occupying an impressive private corner plot, this elegant classical-style villa combines timeless Mediterranean character with modern comfort, offering an exceptional lifestyle in one of the area's most desirable settings. Designed to make the most of the Spanish climate, the property boasts beautifully maintained outdoor spaces centred around a private swimming pool, expansive sun terraces, and a variety of inviting seating and entertaining areas. A superb fully glazed outdoor kitchen, complete with dining and utility area, creates the perfect space for year-round entertaining, while a separate outdoor WC and dedicated storage room provide additional practicality. Inside, the main villa is beautifully presented and filled with natural light. The spacious accommodation comprises three generous double bedrooms, two stylish bathrooms, a bright and welcoming open-plan lounge, and a separate fully fitted kitchen, all designed to provide comfort, space, and effortless living. Adding further appeal is the self-contained guest annex, offering complete independence with its own double bedroom, bathroom, fitted kitchen, and private roof terrace. Whether used for visiting family and friends,...
