Perched majestically at the highest peak of the hill, this extraordinary traditional villa offers an elite lifestyle defined by privacy, luxury, and panoramic beauty. It commands an unrivaled position directly overlooking the emerald greens of La Marquesa Golf Course, with the Mediterranean Sea shimmering beautifully on the horizon when viewed from the rooftop. Whether you are hosting sunset soirées on the deck, enjoying a quiet morning coffee in the sunroom, or watching the stars from your dual rooftop solariums, this property isn't just a home—it is a front-row seat to the best views in Rojales. The heart of the main residence is a magnificent, wrap-around living area built around a striking central fireplace, creating a cozy yet sophisticated focal point. The grand traditional kitchen offers abundant space for gourmet creation, seamlessly supported by a practical pantry with direct access to the front porch. The main level features two spacious bedrooms: one with its own private ensuite bathroom complete with a bathtub, and another currently used as a spacious office. This level also features a family bathroom, ensuring ultimate comfort for family and guests alike. Upstairs, a self...
