This exclusive property stands out for its magnificent indoor heated swimming pool, perfect for a swim at any time of year, surrounded by a chill-out area and a sun deck ideal for relaxing in the sun. Upon entering, you are greeted by a bright, avant-garde kitchen, fully equipped with a generous worktop and unobstructed views of the pine forest. This space flows seamlessly into the dining room and opens directly onto an outdoor porch, perfect for hosting family lunches and dinners al fresco. The living area is completed by a main lounge featuring a spacious sofa, a separate dining room reserved for more formal occasions and evenings, and a study flooded with natural light, with enormous potential to be transformed into a studio or music room. The sleeping area offers complete privacy, with the master bedroom featuring a private dressing room and a full en-suite bathroom. The property houses three further bedrooms and four additional bathrooms, perfectly distributed throughout, as well as a convenient separate laundry area with a dedicated ironing space. Entertainment and personal care take centre stage on the lower floor and in the leisure areas. The house features a private gym equip...
