Set within an expansive private plot of 5,727 m², this remarkable estate in Los Montesinos offers a rare combination of space, privacy, views and versatility. Surrounded by open countryside and enjoying distant views towards the salt lakes and Mediterranean coastline, the property provides a peaceful setting while remaining conveniently close to local amenities and the coast. The main house offers an impressive amount of accommodation, currently comprising 8 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms. Parts of the residence have already been transformed with a contemporary finish, creating bright and sophisticated living spaces, while other areas remain unfinished. This gives the new owner the freedom to complete and personalise the property according to their own vision. Large windows bring natural light into the renovated interiors, while open-plan living areas and a modern designer kitchen create a stylish and comfortable environment. With substantial additional space still available for development, the residence could be transformed into an exceptional luxury family home or an ambitious bespoke project. Outside, the estate truly comes into its own. A spectacular swimming pool forms the focal point...
