This light and airy semi-detached property is ideally located directly opposite the beautiful communal swimming pool within the popular Residencial Eva in La Fiesta. The well-presented two-bedroom, two-bathroom property occupies a generous plot with a selection of fruit trees and aromatic plants. There is ample off-road parking, along with a choice of seating areas throughout the garden, on the covered terrace (with awning) and on the private solarium. From each level, the property enjoys pleasant views over the private garden and beautifully maintained communal pool and gardens, while the solarium also offers views towards the lakes and Torre Vieja. The accommodation is bright and spacious, flowing naturally from the covered terrace into the lounge-diner and open-plan kitchen. From here, there are two bedrooms, one of which benefits from an en-suite bathroom, while the second bedroom is conveniently located next to the family bathroom. All furniture is included in the sale. Additional storage is available beneath the property and underneath the stairs leading to the solarium, providing useful extra space. All amenities and services can be found a short drive from the house and the ...
