

Ref: MLL4374

Duplex, Elche

0€

Detached house for long-term rental in the heart of Elche – space, privacy and a spectacular 80 m² terraceAre you looking for something different, spacious and comfortable to enjoy living in Elche all year round? This fantastic detached house for long-term rental, located right in the centre of Elche, is one of those properties that will surprise you from the very first moment.With 160 m² of built area, distributed over two floors plus a spectacular 80 m² terrace, this home offers something that is increasingly difficult to find in the city centre: space, independence, privacy and a large outdoor area to enjoy all year round.The property was built in 2000 and is in very good condition. It also benefits from an East-facing orientation, allowing plenty of natural light into the home.On entering the property, a practical entrance hall leads into a spacious and welcoming living-dining room, the perfect place to relax, enjoy family gatherings or share long meals with friends.On this same floor, there is a fantastic fully equipped separate kitchen, spacious and functional, designed to make everyday life as comfortable as possible. The gro...

