Ref: FL4640 Semi detached, Ciudad Quesada 274,900€

N/A	85m²	3	2

A home where outdoor space is as much a part of everyday life as the interior. Set within the La Perla residential development in Doña Pepa, this corner property offers three bedrooms, two bathrooms and several places to enjoy the climate of Ciudad Quesada. A planted garden, covered porch, upstairs terrace and communal swimming pool make it an appealing choice for year-round living or regular holidays on the Costa Blanca.

The location brings practical benefits beyond the property itself. Shops are close by for everyday essentials, while the beaches are approximately ten minutes away by car. It is a setting that combines easy access to the coast with the convenience of an established residential neighbourhood.

Through the entrance gate, palms and trees give the garden its Mediterranean character. Gravel-covered areas help keep maintenance manageable, particularly useful for owners who spend only part of the year here. The corner position allows the outdoor areas to extend around several sides of the house, creating different spots to sit, add planting or enjoy time outside.

At the front, the covered porch provides a sheltered dining area away from direct s...
