Sun Golf Villas are a well designed modern style bungalow located in the wonderful village of Pilar De La Horadada. They offer two or three-bedroom with two bathrooms with pre installation for air conditioning and double glazing. The properties have open design living space with large windows giving lots of light in the living space. The lounge opens up into the gardens and a private swimming pool is optional. There are white goods included in the kitchen. Pilar De La Horadada is ideally located just a five minute drive from the wonderful blue flag beaches of Las Higuercas, Torre De La Horadada and Mil Palmeras. The beaches have all the facilities you will need to have a great day out in the sun. The region is known for its agriculture, market gardens, orchards and citrus groves. There are many restaurants for you to taste the local cuisine with the town full of everything you need to enjoy being in the area. The area has fantastic temperatures and little rainfall throughout the year making it your ideal location to own a home in Spain in a charming typical Spanish town.
