La Marquesa; Fantastic Views! This luxury villa is in privileged position enjoying panoramic, mountain, directly over the golf fairway and sea views. The villa's main living area benefits from 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms (1 en-suite), the spacious lounge/dining area enjoying golf views via specially installed full length windows, from both the terrace and solarium are vistas right across the bay to Santa Pola. Cleverly designed making use of its elevated position there is separate 2 bedroom accommodation at the pool/terrace level, with its own, comprising also its own bathroom, kitchen and reception areas. This beautiful villa has been air-conditioned throughout, has a tiled (low maintenance) plot with parking, fitted wardrobes, mains natural gas supply, intercom access to name just a few of its many attractive features. A great opportunity to purchase a superior villa in Ciudad Quesada, open to a variety of uses. Started in 1972, Ciudad Quesada was one of the first residential urbanisations in Spain, it became one of the largest and is still one of the most popular for expatriate clients seeking a holiday home, but where it differs is in the number of people from foreign lands who ha...
