Versatile living space makes this home ideal for families and guests. This three-bedroom home is split into two apartments, each with their own entrance but also benefitting from an adjoining staircase. The main house is up a flight of stairs. Here you find a spacious terrace with far-reaching views. Inside you find a cosy living room complete with decorative fire place. Double doors from the living room take you to a refurbished independent kitchen. A good-sized master bedroom has its own ensuite bathroom and dressing area, plus there is a second double bedroom and family bathroom. The downstairs apartment has one double bedroom, kitchen and bathroom. Outside, plenty of interest is created by the different levels - creating lots of sitting areas to enjoy the sunshine, alfresco dining etc. There is a charming outside bar, perfect for entertaining. The house also has a roof solarium with lovely views. The property comes with aircon and oil central heating. Unfurnished property for sale all white goods included. Winter living full central heating. Completely reformed 2016 all legal paperwork. The house is in a gr...
