Here we have a great opportunity to acquire a charming Finca/Farmhouse-style property for sale at the heart of Daya Vieja village. The estate (built 2005) consists of 2 residential dwellings situated on a well-landscaped plot of some 4032sqm which is fully fenced. There is a 4-car driveway, garage and workshop, a private pool, chill-out hut with a state of the art sauna, external summer kitchen with a pizza oven, established gardens, a chicken run along with a vegetable garden! The properties have mains water and electricity and are connected to the mains sewerage system. The main house oozes charm “elevated ceilings, exposed beam-work and large rooms give a true feeling of Spanish living. There are 3 double bedrooms (2 with their own en-suite bathrooms), a larger than average eat-in kitchen, formal lounge with a free-standing wood-burner, plus a wonderful dining area with views out over the garden. The guest annex is completely self-contained and houses a rather elaborate summer kitchen and dining area, 2 bedrooms, plus a full shower room. There is also a covered naya which provides some welcoming shade during the height of the summer! The property is in excellent condition...
