This fantastic house was built in 2003 with high qualities and a cozy design. As we access the house there is a large hall and access to the private garage of the house. We also find a toilet with shower, a bedroom that is functioning as an office, a large and comfortable kitchen with pantry and dining area, and a spacious and bright living room with access to the back terrace. In the large terrace we have barbecue, laundry room and space for a jacuzzi or gazebo. Through an internal staircase we access the upper floor where we find a large master bedroom with dressing room and bathroom en suite. We can access the terrace from the bedroom. There are 3 more bedrooms and another bathroom with a bath. The views from the back terrace are to the orchard where you can appreciate fantastic sunsets. The materials used are top quality: marble floors, fully equipped kitchen, heating throughout the house... San Fulgencio is located 16 km south of the city of Elche, 22 km from Orihuela, and 26 km from Alicante - Elche airport. The nearest beaches are those of Elche and Guardamar del Segura which are 7 kilometers away. You have all the services walking and the atmosphere of a town but the pro...
